

Church Constitution - Guide

CONSTITUTION OF THE NAME OF CHURCH

ARTICLE ONE – NAME AND ASSOCIATION

This Church shall be known as NAME OF CHURCH of CITY, STATE having been organized DATE OF ORGANIZATION and incorporated DATE OF INCORPORATION.

This church is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body but it recognizes and sustains the obligations of the mutual counsel and cooperation which are common among Baptist Churches. This church will cooperate with and support the LOCAL ASSOCIATION Association and STATE State Convention affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE TWO– STATEMENT OF FAITH

The Bible is the inspired word of God and is the basis for any statement of faith. The church subscribes to the doctrinal statement of “THE BAPTIST FAITH AND MESSAGE” adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 2000. We band together as a body of baptized believers in Jesus Christ, personally committed to sharing the good news of salvation to lost mankind.¹

ARTICLE THREE – COVENANT

(See “Church Covenant – Example and References”)

ARTICLE FOUR – ORDINANCES

The ordinances of the Church are Believer’s Baptism and the Lord’s Supper. The Lord’s Supper will be observed MONTHLY, QUARTERLY, etc. and on special occasions as determined by the Deacons. The ordinance of the Lord’s Supper is open to all those who love the Lord Jesus Christ. The pastor, or other representatives appointed by the Board of Deacons, shall preside.

ARTICLE FIVE – MEMBERSHIP

Section I: Qualification

Membership in the Church is open to all persons who have publicly testified to their faith in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord and have given evidence of that faith by following the Lord in believer’s Baptism by immersion in water, and who are in agreement with the covenant and the statement of faith of this church.

Section II: Acceptance of Members

The manner of admission to the Church shall be as follows: (1) by baptism upon profession of faith in Jesus Christ, or (2) by promise of letter from another Baptist church of like faith and order, or (3) by statement of salvation and scriptural baptism by immersion by a church of like faith and order. Any person may come as a candidate for membership in the Church at any regular service.

Section III: Duties and Privileges of Membership

All members have equal rights and privileges. Only active members of the Church may act and vote in transactions of the Church or hold Church office.

Section IV: Transfer to the Inactive Membership Roll

When a member has been inactive for a period of one year, by not attending services, communicating with the Church, or contributing to its support, the church may, upon recommendation of the board of deacons, transfer his/her name to the inactive membership roll. Consideration of such action shall be taken only after a reasonable number of attempts to contact the member to encourage and assist the member in rejoining the active church.

Any person, whose name has been placed on the inactive roll who renews his/her work in the church and takes an active role as a professing Christian, may be restored to active membership by vote of the board of deacons, without further action by the church.

Section IV: Discipline and/or Removal

In cases where church discipline must be exercised for any cause, the directions of the Bible are to be observed as found in Matthew 18:15-17 and 2 Corinthians 2:5-11.

The purpose of such discipline should be:

-Love for the individual and a desire for God's best in his or her life (Matthew 22:39 and John 13:34, 35)

-For the repentance, reconciliation, and spiritual growth of the individual disciplined (Proverbs 15:5; 17:10; 25:12; 27:5; 1 Corinthians 4:14; 5:5; Ephesians 6:4; 1 Timothy 1:20; 3:4-5; Hebrews 12:1-11; Psalm 119:115; Ecclesiastes 7:5; Matt 7:26-27; 18:15-17; Luke 17:3; Acts 2:40; 2 Thessalonians 3:6; Titus 1:13-14; James 1:22)

-For the instruction and good of other Christians, as an example to them (see Proverbs 13:20; Romans 15:14; 1 Corinthians 5:11; 15:33; Colossians 3:16; 1 Thessalonians 5:14; 1 Timothy 5:20; Titus 1:11; Hebrews 10:24-25)

-For the purity of the church as a whole (1 Corinthians 5:6-7; 2 John 1:10; 2 Corinthians 13:10; Ephesians 5:27; Jude 24; Revelation 21:2)

-For the good of our corporate witness to non-believers (Proverbs 28:7; Matthew 5:13-16; John 13:35; Acts 5:10-14; Ephesians 5:11; 1 Timothy 3:7; 2 Peter 2:2; 1 John 3:10)

-For the glory of God by reflecting His Holy Character (Deuteronomy 5:11; 1 Kings 11:2; 2 Chronicles 19:2; Ezra 6:21; Nehemiah 9:2; Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 36:20; Matthew 5:16; John 15:8; 18:17, 25; Romans 2:24; 15:5-6; 2 Corinthians 6:14-7:1; Ephesians 1:4; 5:27; 1 Peter 2:12)

Section V: Membership Termination

Membership in the church may be terminated in the following ways: (1) death, or (2) transfer to another church, or (3) exclusion by action of this church, or (4) by written request.

ARTICLE SIX -- FINANCIAL SUPPORT

It is expected that this Church shall be supported through the regular weekly giving of its members.

An offering for the benevolent fund will normally be taken whenever the ordinance of the Lord's Supper is observed. This fund is to be used for the benevolent work of the church as directed by the Board of Deacons.²

ARTICLE SEVEN – MEETINGS OF THE CHURCH

Annual Meeting

The moderator (or in his/her absence, the vice-moderator) shall chair all business meetings. In the absence of both the moderator and vice-moderator, the chair of the Board of Management shall act as moderator.

For the purpose of business meetings, a quorum shall consist of 10% of members on the church's active membership list. All members, regardless of age, may vote. Proxy votes shall not be permissible, except by a special motion approved by a two-thirds majority vote of the membership.

Regular and Special Business Meetings

Regular business meetings shall be held every SPECIFY TIME (ex. the third Wednesday of each month). Furthermore, it shall be permissible to transact routine business of the church at a special business meeting of the church called by the moderator, pastor, or chair of the Board of Management, provided that the intention of conducting business has been announced at the worship service immediately prior. The agenda shall be circulated or made known to the church during the worship service immediately prior to the business meeting.

Religious Services

The church shall meet regularly each Sunday for public worship and for the preaching of the Gospel. Other meetings for worship, preaching, and study may be held at the discretion of the pastor and the Board of Deacons.

ARTICLE EIGHT-- AMENDMENTS

Any member may submit written proposals for constitutional amendments or revisions to the deacons. The deacons shall bring the proposal before all elected officials for review and shall report the decision of the elected officials to the person who submitted the proposal. The elected officials may propose constitutional amendments and revisions to the congregation. The proposal and the date of the vote must be announced for two weeks prior to the vote, and the text of the proposal must be available for inspection by the congregation during this time. A two-thirds majority of votes cast is necessary for ratification of the amendment or revision.

ARTICLE NINE – POLITY

The government of this church is vested in the body of baptized believers who compose it. It is an independent, self-governing and democratic body.³

ARTICLE TEN -- VOTING AND PROCEDURE

Meetings shall follow the regulations set forth in this constitution and parliamentary procedure as described by Robert's Rules of Order.

A secret ballot on any issue may be called for upon decision of the majority of those present and voting.

ARTICLE ELEVEN -- OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES

Section I: Officers

Officers of this church shall include: senior pastor, associate pastors, deacons, moderator, church clerk, financial secretary, treasurer, and two auditors. The church may have as many associate pastors as deemed necessary by the congregation and leadership board. Officers must be active members of the church.

Section II: Deacons

The church may have as many Deacons as deemed necessary by the congregation and leadership board with a minimum of three deacons. Deacons shall be elected for a term of service of two (2) years or until his office is terminated by either his request or that of the church.

A church Deacon must meet the scriptural qualification listed in Acts 6:1-7, and 1 Timothy 3:8-13. A Deacon shall demonstrate an exemplary Christian testimony in private, family, and public life; a committed Christian leader and partner of the pastor; supporter and promoter of the church faith, practice, programs, and ministries.

Section III: Committees

Through the cooperative efforts of the pastor and the personnel committee, all church committees shall be formed as needed. Each committee shall consist of at least a chairperson who is a member in good standing. The only permanently standing committee of this church shall be the personnel committee, and the Budget and Finance committee. Committees shall exist for a reasonable period of time, review its purpose no less than once annually, and dissolve when its purpose is no longer needed.

³ Traditionally, the polity of Baptist congregation has been democratic in style. An elder led polity may be desired and should be explained within this article.

ARTICLE TWELVE— MINISTERS

Section I:

Pastor – It shall be the Pastor’s duty to preach the gospel, teach the scriptures, administer the ordinances, articulate a vision for the congregation, train and prepare leaders, equip the saints for the work of ministry in order to evangelize the lost, care for the sick and bereaved and in various other ways guide and advance the spiritual welfare of the church.
